FRUIT RIDGE HOME LOST IN FIRE

$10,000 To $12,000 Loss As Flames Destroy Home Of Tom Brunius Family

The six-room home and adjoining three-room apartment and laundry building at the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brunius, in the Fruit Ridge district were destroyed by a fire of undetermined origin about 4 o'clock Sunday morning with a loss estimated by the state Division of Forestry at between $10,000 and $12,000. It is reported there was no insurance.

Mrs. Brunius suffered first degree and second degree burns on the right hand, the right side of her neck and face. Persuaded by friends to seek medical treatment after the fire, her doctor reported her injuries painful and severe but not critical.

Mt. Danaher station of the state Division of Forestry reports the alarm of fire was received by them at 4:10 o'clock Sunday morning from a telephone operator after Mrs. Brunius had sought to place the call and had, apparently, been driven from the telephone by the flames.

A fire truck responded immediately and was able to confine the blaze to the home and the adjoining apartment and laundry building, preventing its spread to the barn and to a packing shed.

It was reported that the family, Mr. and Mrs. Brunius and their two children, were all asleep at the time that the fire broke out and that they are at a loss to explain the origin of the blaze, since it had been a period of days since there had been a fire in any stove in the home.

Mrs. Brunius suffered the most severe burn on her hand when she grasped a door knob on the laundry and apartment building to attempt to free the family's pet dog, which was confined in the building. The dog died in the fire.

Friant Dam Start Made

First Concrete Poured This Afternoon On San Joaquin Storage

FRIANT (U)—Friant Dam, southern keystone of the vast California Central Valley water project, today was ready for the pouring of the first bucket of concrete this afternoon.

Official ceremonies were arranged for the laying of the first concrete dam.

The Central Valley Project Association and the Fresno County Chamber of Commerce sponsored the public ceremony at the south dam abutment on the Fresno county side of the San Joaquin river.

Friant dam will be 320 feet high and about 2,200,000 cubic yards of concrete. It will be exceeded in size only by Grand Coulee, Shasta and Boulder dams in that order.

Friant dam's "big brother," the Shasta dam at the northern end of the central valleys, got its first concrete July 8. Shasta dam will be 560 feet high, and diversion of the Sacramento river to permit pouring the center blocks is expected to take place some time in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Rupley were at Sacramento Friday evening, sharing with their granddaughter, Sanira Trainor, in an appropriate observance of her third birthday anniversary, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trainor, near Phyllis Rupley.

Cubs Trim Roseville 16 To 15 In See-Saw Battle Of Ten Innings

The Auburn Cubs won the 1940 Placer-Nevada Baseball League pennant Sunday when they defeated the W. & R. nine, of Roseville, 16 to 15 in a ten-inning see-saw at Auburn. Wolf and Royer were out in front, 14 to 5, in the seventh inning when the Cubs scored six runs and added three more in the eighth to tie up the ball game at fourteen apiece.

The ninth inning ended with the victory still undecided and when Perry slammed one for four bases in the Roseville half of the tenth, the boys from the railroad town began to plan a flag raising.

But in the Auburn half of what proved to be the last inning, the Cubs slammed over two runs and the ball game and the 1940 Placer-Nevada league race was over.

Both starting pitchers retired during the game. Hurley got into hot water in the fourth and retired in favor of White, who finished for Auburn. Rodrick got into trouble in the seventh and retired in favor of McNulty, who yielded to Rogers. Bartletts To Close Season

Club Lost 9 To 5 Sunday In Final Game; Directors Meet Tuesday Night

The affairs of the El Dorado County Bartletts for 1940 will be concluded Tuesday evening at a meeting of the club's directors at the chamber of commerce rooms. Income will be measured against outgoing and the balance will be turned over to the Red Cross.

The Bartts, with a number of newcomers in the lineup, played their last game of the season Sunday against the Outdoor Club, of Sacramento, and with Jackson hurling lost, 9 to 5. The game was played at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial Park.

Secretary Wallace M. Ripley discounted reports that the club was planning a game at Reno and suggested that if a Reno game is arranged, it will be with an independent club from Placerville, since a majority of the directors are disposed to view the small balance above expenses now in the club as were able to chase across three a "successful season" and consider this a good time to quit.

The Outdoor Club proved to be a lively opponent and the Bartletts were able to keep within striking distance of them, ending the eighth inning on the short end of a 6 to 5 count.

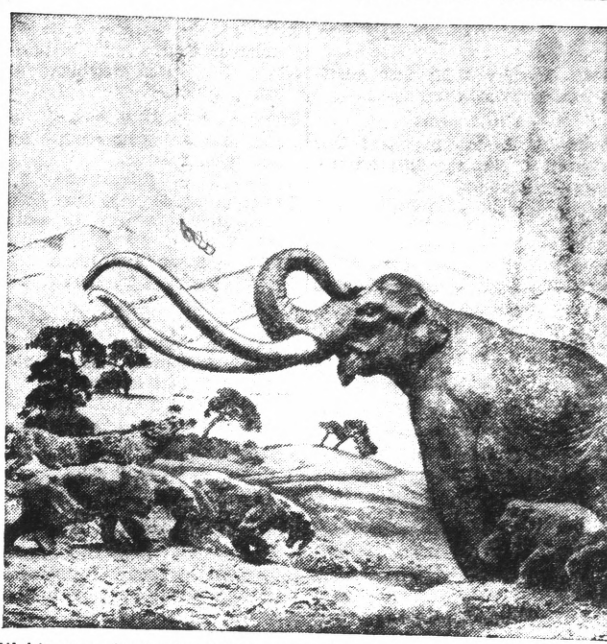

However, in the ninth, the visitors were able to chase across three tallies and the game ended with the Bartletts trailing by four runs, 9 to 5.

Risser Car Stolen, Found Minus Three Tires

Motorists will do well to lock their cars when leaving them, or at least take the keys from the car, judging from the experience of Mrs. R. G. Risser.

Her car was stolen Saturday evening and was found Sunday in the Missouri Flat section, minus three tires.

WEIRD BEAST AT WORLD'S FAIR

Nightmare animals of prehistoric America are seen in their native haunts in the University of California paleontological exhibit in the Hall of Science at the Golden Gate International Exposition. This is only one of the features of a remarkable display which covers all the biological and physical sciences and presents a visualized course in the development of civilization from antediluvian times. This is a visualization of the famous LaBrea asphalt pits in Los Angeles, with saber-tooth tigers attacking a huge mammoth and her young which have become entangled in the pit.

$14,310 SHARE IN GAS TAX

4th Quarter Apportionment By State Controller Based On 5,341 Cars In County

SACRAMENTO—State Controller Harry B. Riley announced the apportionment of $14,310.70 in gasoline tax funds to El Dorado county. The apportionment, largest fourth quarter distribution of motor vehicle fuel funds, was made on the basis of a total registration of 5,341 registered motor vehicles in the county.

Controller Riley distributed $3,965,217, one-third of the total, to the fifty-eight counties of the state on the basis of motor vehicle registration and deposited $7,930,433 in the state highway fund.

Receipts of the Motor Vehicle Fuel Fund for the fiscal year 1939-40 totaled $55,187,057 compared with $51,941,342 for the preceding fiscal year, an increase of six and one-fourth per cent, Riley announced.

In the year just closed the state controller refunded $4,566,045 to purchasers of gasoline used for non-highway purposes. It cost over $192,000 to collect gasoline taxes in 1939-40.

1939-40 the controller apportioned $50,425,377 of gas tax money, an increase of $3,410,138 over the preceding year. Of the total, $16,808,459 went to the counties.

SUICIDE OF INMATES AT WHITTIER SCHOOL TO BE PROBED

LOS ANGELES, (U)—State and county officials moved simultaneously today to publicly investigate two hanging suicides within the past year at Whittier state school for boys as Gov. Culbert L. Olson vetoed plans for a secret investigation by the department of institutions.

Governor Olson appointed a three man citizen committee to conduct a public inquiry into the suicide of 16-year-old Edward Leiva last Tuesday, and District Attorney Buron Pitts assigned Deputy Vernon Ferguson to lay the case before the county grand jury tomorrow. The similar suicide of Benny Moreno, 13, last August also will be investigated.

Missourian Swims 292 Miles In Mississippi

CARUTHERSVILLE, MO.—(U)—Butcher John Sigmund, 30, of St. Louis, apparently none the worse for his world record swim down the Mississippi River from St. Louis, prepared to return to work today. Sigmund swam 292 miles and landed exhausted at 1:50 p. m. yesterday after averaging more than 3.2 miles per hour. With an elapsed time of 90 hours, 28 minutes, Sigmund exceeded by four miles the old record of 288 miles made on the Yellowstone river in 1938 by Clarence Giles, Billings, Mont.

WAVES OF NAZI SHIPS INCREASE INTENSITY OF ATTACK ON BRITISH ISLES

London Claims Thirty Of Invaders Felled During Weekend; Rome Press Hints Attempt To Break Resistance Without Actual Invasion

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign News Editor

Nazi war planes struck their fiercest blow at the British Isles today but paid a high toll to the increasingly powerful defense forces.

Whether the attack meant that Adolf Hitler's long threatened blitzkrieg was at hand—as suggested by dispatches from German dominated France—or whether the German offensive was merely gradually intensified still was a subject of speculation. At Rome, the Fascist press indicated that there might not be any definite "launching" of a blitzkrieg by saying that it had been under way since Friday.

In any event, the tempo of aerial war on both sides was steadily mounting, — the British bombers ranging deep into German occupied French coast while the Nazis concentrated on British coastal shipping and scattered land objectives.

German dive bombers and fighting planes with the sun behind them attacked in waves along the south-east coast of England (possibly the vital Dover sector), but met a tremendous anti-aircraft barrage and a swarm of British fighting planes. Approximately 30 German planes have been shot down since Sunday, about 20 early today.

It was the biggest raid and the most violent aerial battle of the war, eye witnesses said. Some of the German planes brought down exploded in mid-air. The first attackers defied the heavy ground barrage but later waves broke and were chased out over the English Channel.

In addition to the aerial attacks, the Germans continued to claim that their U-boats and airplanes were inflicting tremendous shipping losses on Britain. In the last three days, the German reports claim that more than 200,000 tons of British shipping was sent to the bottom. (Continued on Page Four)

United Stand On Colonies

Pan-American Conference To Protect European Holdings 'Orphaned' By War

HAVANA, (U)—President Roosevelt's declaration that the United States held itself responsible for the defense of the western hemisphere gets the unanimous approval today of the 21 republics represented at the conference of American foreign ministers.

Mr. Roosevelt's declaration, made more than a year ago when he dedicated an international bridge on the United States-Canadian border, was an integral part of the "declaration of Havana" which the conference is to adopt and which will set up a limited "collective trusteeship" over the war orphaned European colonies should it appear that they would go to the victor in Europe's war. Its wording was modified at the request of Argentina be taken to establish a "mandate" over the colonies until one was found necessary. The original proposal, sponsored by the United States, had called for immediate action.

The declaration was given final approval last night by the full committee for the preservation of peace. It goes before a private session of the entire conference today and will be approved publicly at the closing session tomorrow.

JAPANESE REPORT THAT BRITISH NEWS MAN ENDED HIS LIFE

TOKYO — (UP) — An official statement today said that 12 Britons—including a newspaperman—officially said to have committed suicide—had been arrested on charges of participation in British espionage "covering the entire country."

The death of Melville Jones Cox, chief of the Reuters (British) news agency in the far east, was announced by the ministries of war and justice as a suicide. The statement said that Cox leaped from the third floor of the Tokyo military police headquarters despite efforts of guards to restrain him rather than "face probable conviction."

In addition the statement said that the British subjects held were "part of a British espionage network covering the entire country." The arrests were reported made in connection with Japanese military secrets.

THE very daring of the theft was in itself a stroke of criminal genius. For the fortune in bright stones was not stolen from some solitary and unsuspecting messenger. It was accomplished in the course of the ornate and ceremonious banquet given by the Mandarin Lee Wong to high dignitaries among his compatriots in San Francisco.

There had been one indiscretion, Egypt Carse, star investigator for the Apex Surety, discovered. Yet it would not have mattered had it not been noted by that strangely beautiful and half-known woman. Carse was to find this woman the most bewildering and perilous of his seasoned career. You'll see why when you read this fascinating new serial beginning

RELIGION ON RADIO DEPLORED AS "ONE OF THE SORRY ASPECTS OF BROADCASTING" AT STANFORD UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, (UP)—Educators and broadcasters took radio programs to pieces, from "soap operas" to symphony, in a full-dress debate at the Stanford conference on radio and education.

Standing as a mediator between the two groups in the discussion was Leonard Power, Washington, D. C., of the federal radio education committee.

Power predicted that educationally-owned radio stations might eventually outnumber commercial stations.

"Radio is no better than textbooks," he said, "but radio's full advantage to the student will be developed when schools and colleges build their own stations and perfect their technique."

Keynoters for the educators and radio men were Dr. D. Elton Trueblood, Stanford chaplain, and Glen Dolberg, program director of KPO-KGO, San Francisco.

Dr. Trueblood, who said he spoke as a radio layman, conceded radio's power over public opinion. Radio commentators like Raymond Gram Swing, Elmer Davis and H. V. Kaltenborn, he said, wield a power "beyond that of any single newspaper."

However, he criticized radio's "code of decency" as puritanical and

"perhaps due to the self-consciousness of a new industry." He deplored radio religion as "one of the most sorry aspects of broadcasting."

"Those religious groups with dignity and spirit seem to have refrained from the radio," Dr. Trueblood said. "The queer ones, what we may call the lunatic fringe, bring out the rampant emotionalism of an old frontier revival. About a third of their time on the air appears to be devoted to asking for money."

Dolberg began his defense of the broadcasting by conceding the weakness of morning programs, beginning with the "merry quips of the breakfast hour announcers and progressing to the 15-minute sentimental dramas aimed at the housewife."

He said there were about 50 of these "soap operas" but broadcasters have found they have a die-hard following. They constitute a radio traffic jam for the listener who seeks variety during the forenoon, he said, but cannot be eliminated.

But in the evening, he said, radio presents "a feast of entertainment," from which it is hard to make a choice. He said the evening radio log presents the absolute top in entertainment value.

Norbert Homes Thrice In Seals Stadium

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP)—Ted Norbert, giant leftfielder for the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League, yesterday hit three consecutive home runs out of Seals Stadium, second largest baseball park in the United States.

All three went over the 25 foot wall in left field, which is 365 feet from home plate. The rightfield wall is 385 feet. Cleveland Municipal Stadium is the only larger field in baseball.

Among those to whom license to wed recently was issued at Reno are R. Wilson Hamp, 22, and Pauline Fox, both of Placerville. The couple will make their home in this city.

FRENCH LEADERS FACING TRIALS ON GUILT IN WAR COLLAPSE

VICHY, France, (UP)—Minister of Justice Albert today submitted a decree to the council of ministers creating a high court to try former Premier Edouard Daladier and others charged with responsibility for the war and the defeat of France.

Although the official list of persons to be arraigned before the high court has not been announced, it appeared that former Premiers Daladier, Paul Reynaud and Leon Blum, Generalissimo Maurice Gustave Gamelin, former Minister of Interior Georges Mandel and former Air Minister Pierre Cot would be the "stars" of the trials.

Each of the former political and military leaders will be granted an individual hearing. Mandel alone appears to risk a death sentence because he may be charged with plotting against the state's security. Informed circles insisted there was no intention of taking reprisals against these men and that the trials would be conducted in the spirit of establishing full responsibility for involving France in war and the events leading to the disaster.

THE SPIRIT OF

by JOHN CLINTON

You know, in writing these columns I feel a certain obligation to my readers—if any—to report on Union rather than just advertise it.

That explains why when the boss said: "Write something about our Stop-Wear Lubrication being different from ordinary lubrication," I said: "Different how? Aren't all lubrication jobs the same?"

Well, they took my Hispano-Plymouth and gave it a regular Stop-Wear job. When they brought it back, they said: "Now look, Clinton. We want you to observe 3 things:

"You can see the difference, feel the difference, and hear the difference. Get in and drive around the block, then quit being a skeptic!"

Which I did. Would I feel the difference in the way it steered and shifted? I did hear the difference in the way it sounded—quiet as a whisper, and as for seeing the difference, that was obvious—car dusted off, tires and running boards dressed, glass gleaming, even the interior cleaned out!

Don't just take my word for it. Drive down to your Union station and have 'em do a Stop-Wear job on your car. Then, drive it. If you don't agree it's got anything better you ever tried before, then may I never write another column in all my life.

tom, although some of these reports were from submarines which meant that the losses might have been inflicted over a number of days.

As a result, it was impossible to estimate even on the basis of German claims (which are largely denied in London) the rate of sinkings. In Berlin, however, it was asserted that the British shipping losses were greater than the 800,000 tons lost in a month at the peak of world war U-boat raids and that the British were facing a shortage of food.

The Nazi emphasis on British shipping losses and the increased intensity of aerial attack on the British Isles left unanswered the question of whether Hitler would attempt the threatened invasion of Britain.

At Vichy, capital of defeated France, it was disclosed that all railroad traffic into and through certain sections of German occupied territory had been halted or was closely controlled. Such measures were viewed in some sources as meaning that the climatic attack on Britain was at hand.

In Rome, Fascist press statements that the blitzkrieg against Britain had been underway for four days indicated that the axis powers may be planning the gradual increase of aerial warfare in an attempt to destroy British resistance without an actual invasion.

Britain also faced new dangers far from home. At Gibraltar, a terrific explosion killed three persons and injured many others, according to dispatches from Spain.

Richard C. Hocking was taken into custody Friday night on the complaint of Leo Dibbs, of Somerset, that his car had been stolen and asking the arrest of anyone found driving it. Investigation developed Hocking had a reasonable right to drive the car and he was subsequently released.

CONFESS YOUR LOVE AND FIND PEACE. says Joan Crawford, as Susan, throwing Miss Rita Hayworth and John Carroll together despite the Rits is already very much married to an older man. SIXTH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT AMONG MOST HISTORIC IN STATE, ASSEMBLYMAN THURMAN NOTES

The Sixth Assembly District, according to our Assemblyman, Allen G. Thurman, is one of the most historic as well as one of the most scenic areas in the state.

In Coloma, El Dorado county, gold was discovered by James W. Marshall in '48, while Bret Harte and Mark Twain made history in the Mother Lode region in the early days. Quartz gold was discovered in Grass Valley some 86 years ago.

There are many historic places in the district which includes towns, which in their day, were among the largest communities in the state. Such towns as Columbia in Tuolumne county, and Iowa Hill and Dutch Flat in Placer county, Placerville, once known as Hangtown, is another pioneer city. Mariposa is another town which dates back to the early '50s.

Some of the early day newspapers of the state are still being published in the district, four of them dating back some 87 and 86 years. They include the Placer Herald, the Mariposa Gazette, the Sonora Union Democrat and the Placerville Mountain Democrat.

The highest and lowest points in the United States are located in the district represented by Thurman, both being Inyo County. Mt. Whitney which rises to an altitude of 14,496 feet and Death Valley which is 279 feet below sea level.

Among the scenic wonders of the Sixth Assembly district are Donner Lake, Yosemite National Park, Lake Tahoe, Mono Lake, the Calaveras Big Trees and many other points of scenic beauty including the high Sierras.

"SUSAN AND GOD" CLOSES SHOWING AT EMPIRE MONDAY NIGHT

The new dramatic promise which Joan Crawford evidenced in "The Women" reaches a surprising culmination in "Susan and God," pictureization of the Rachel Crothers' Broadway hit which has become an even greater success. The film, co-starring Fredric March and featuring one of the season's strongest supporting casts, ends a two day showing at the Empire tonight.

Despite the magnificent handling of the theme by director George Cukor, the brilliant screen play by Anita Loos and the individual gems of characterization turned in by March and the others, "Susan and God" is a personal triumph for Miss Crawford, for the delicacy and assurance of her work places her on an acting pedestal which she has never previously approached.

As Susan, the scatterbrained, self-centered social gadabout who adopts a new social movement as a fad and makes a complete botch of the lives of her friends and herself by her meddling, the star over-shadows every other item of critical consideration. As the inebricate husband, Barrie, who finally wins the battle with himself and Susan, March turns in a matching performance which makes his return to films a welcome event following his Broadway success in "The American Way."

Mrs. Marie Bilodeau has returned to her work in the forest headquarters following a week's visit with relatives at Olympia, Washington.

Forest Supervisor Edwin F. Smith returned to headquarters over the weekend, concluding a week's inspection trip with Fred Cronmiller, of the regional forest headquarters, on the higher ranges of the forest.
